III. HOW WE WILL USE INFORMATION ABOUT YOU

The application data you submit on our careers site will be stored in the United States, and in the applicable jurisdiction(s) if the position is at a location outside of the United States. The application data will be collected, used, transferred, and disclosed to Danaher and its consultants to do the following:

- Process your application
- Assess your skills, qualifications, and suitability for the role
- Carry out background and reference checks, where applicable
- Communicate with you about the recruitment process
- Keep records related to our hiring process
- Provide any service available you on our careers site
- Comply with legal or regulatory requirements

The legal basis that Danaher applies in the EU for the collection and use of your applicant personal data is legitimate interest. Danaher must make a decision to appoint a candidate to the vacant role. Also, we will need to process your personal data to decide to make you an offer and enter into an employment agreement with you. In completing the application process, you will have a profile that will allow you to self-manage your preferences, and later decide to opt-out of our continued storage and use (as described above) of your application.

Information about you will be added to Danaher's applicant database and will be used for the purpose of considering whether your profile meets the requirements of the vacant role at Danaher. If we choose to make you an offer, personal information you submit will be incorporated into Danaher's HR Information System and will be used to manage the new hire process. If you become a Danaher associate, your personal data will be managed in accordance with the Danaher Associate Privacy Notice.

IV. DISCLOSURES OF PERSONAL DATA AND INTERNATIONAL TRANSFERS

Personal data about you will be shared internally for the purposes of filling the vacant role. This may include sharing with Danaher associate and agents that have a business need to know; such as:

recruiters, human resource personnel, interviewers, and managers or their designees, technical service personnel if access to the data is necessary for the performance of their roles.

Personal data about you will be shared with third-parties acting on our behalf, such third-parties assisting Danaher with the operation of our careers site. Third-parties include Taleo, DDI, and recruitment agencies. All third-party service providers are required to take appropriate security measures to protect your personal data in alignment with our contractual obligations and the law. We do not allow our third-party service providers to use your personal data for their own purposes. We only permit them to process your personal data for specified purposes and in accordance with our instructions.

Some such third-party service providers may be located in territories outside of the EU that do not provide a level of protection to Personal Data equivalent to that provided by your home country. Danaher will (i) exercise appropriate due diligence in the selection of such third-party service providers, and (ii) require appropriate contractual measures, that such third-party service providers maintain adequate technical and organizational security measures in compliance with applicable legal requirements, in order to safeguard the applicant personal data, and process it as instructed by Danaher and for no other purposes.

To provide adequate protection for the transfers out of the EU, Danaher utilizes transfer mechanisms recognized by your home country, which may include executing appropriate contractual clauses based on and conforming to the EU model clauses.

V. DATA SECURITY

We have put in place appropriate security measures to prevent your personal data from being accidentally lost, used, or accessed in an unauthorized way, altered or disclosed. In addition, we limit access to your personal data to associates, agents, contractors and other third parties who have a business need to know. They will only process your personal data on our instruction and they are subject to duty of confidentiality.

We have put in place procedures to deal with any suspected data security breach and will notify you and any applicable regulator of a breach where are legally required to do so.

VI. HOW LONG WILL WE USE YOUR DATA

We will retain your personal data for no longer than is necessary to fulfill the purpose of filling the vacant role and for other potential opportunities that may be a fit as long as you have a live profile, but no longer than 10 years subject to local requirements. We also retain your personal data for that period so that we can show, in the event of a legal claim, that we have not discriminated against candidates on prohibited grounds and the that we have conducted the recruitment exercise in a fair and transparent way. After this period, we will securely destroy your personal data in accordance with applicable laws and regulations.

In completing the application process, you will have a profile that will allow you to self-manage your preferences, and later decide to opt-out of our continued storage and use (as described above) of your application.

VII. ACCESS AND CORRECTION
